7. Running the Channels

Rules:

- 10 cones forming a 40m wide channel. Each cone 10m wide apart. At each end of the channel put up a set of goals.
- At the mid-cone on each side start 4 players. Two are attackers (red) and two are defenders (green). The reds on the right side of the channel have the ball.
- On the whistle, the reds sprint with the ball to the nearest cone and turn into the channel to attack. At the same time the greens on the same side do exactly the same and turn into the channel to defend.
- On the other side the 2 reds and greens sprint to the 'end cones' and turn into the channel to back up their team-mates and form a second wave of defenders and attackers.
- This leads to a 4 v 4 situation, with reds attempting to work the ball into a goal scoring situation and greens trying to work the ball back and score into the other goals.

8. Hitting the Target

Rules:

- One player leaves position A and shoots from close range at opposite goal.
- After he shoots a second player with a ball leaves position B with the intention of scoring at the opposite goals.
- However after shooting the first player immediately runs to tackle the second player and prevent him from scoring.
- Drill continues until each player has gone once.
