CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

The GAA's official Code of Behaviour for all Persons Working with Young People governs relations between young players, coaches, mentors and trainers, parents / guardians, supporters and the club. It is recommended reading for anyone concerned in any way with underage activities in the club. It can be accessed on the club website at the following link.

- http://www.aodhruidh.org/bord_na_nog/code_of_behaviour.php

AUDIO/VISUAL POLICY

Photography and video are important methods of documenting activity, recognising achievement and promoting our games and our club. As part of their involvement with Aodh Ruadh, underage players, adult players and other club members may be photographed and / or videoed. The club has a written policy on:

- Access criteria and appropriate behaviour for photographers and videographers
- Appropriate use of still imagery and video.
- Appropriate use of camera phones
- This policy can be viewed at:
http://www.aodhruidh.org/administration/audio_visual_policy.php.

Anyone with any concerns about photography or video at games, training or any other club activities is asked to inform the Child Protection Officer.

CHILD PROTECTION OFFICER

The role of the child protection officer includes the following key areas.

- To act as a first point of contact for any child protection concerns
- To ensure that confidentiality is maintained, and also that information is passed on where necessary
- To record child protection cases in an effective and reliable way
- To ensure all coaches, mentors and trainers are familiar with and adhere to the Code of Behaviour.

Aodh Ruadh's Child Protection Officer for 2011 is:

JOHN TRAVERS

T: 086-3743207. E: cpo@aodhruidh.org

MEDICAL CONDITIONS

We ask that parents / guardians notify the relevant team management directly of any medical conditions their child may have that they should be aware of.
